Application for non-citizens coversheet FAQ pg. 2

How will Health Care Authority (HCA) use your Social Security number (SSN)?	HCA uses this information to determine your eligibility by confirming your identity, citizenship, immigration status, date of birth, and availability for other health care coverage. HCA does not share this information with any immigration agency for immigration enforcement purposes. Applying for the FPO services for non-citizens program (state-funded) won't affect your immigration status or chances of becoming a permanent resident or citizen. If you do not have an SSN, leave these items blank.
How will HCA use your immigration status information?	HCA uses this information to determine your eligibility by confirming your identity, citizenship, immigration status, date of birth, and availability for other health coverage. HCA does not share your information with any immigration agency for immigration enforcement purposes. Eligibility for the FPO services for non-citizens program (state-funded) is exempt from the public charge test. If you have questions or concerns about how an application for Apple Health or the FPO services for non-citizens program (state-funded) may impact your immigration status or chances of becoming a permanent resident or citizen, contact an immigration attorney. If you do not have an immigration document number, leave these items blank.
Are there language or disability services available when applying?	To get free help in another language (including an interpreter or translation of printed materials) or a disability accommodation, call 1-800-562-3022. Learn more: hca.wa.gov/interpreter-services.
Can you use an Authorized Representative (AREP) to apply?	Yes. An AREP is any adult who is sufficiently aware of the household circumstances and is authorized by the household to act on behalf of the household for eligibility purposes. This is different from partnering with a Navigator or Broker.
What are the FPO program income requirements?	Income must be at or below 260% of the FPL. Visit hca.wa.gov/family-planning for more information.
How is household size determined?	Household size is determined based on tax filing status. A household member is a spouse or dependent for whom the applicant files taxes with or claims as a tax dependent. If you do not file taxes, a household member is a spouse or dependent living in the same home.

Application for non-citizens coversheet FAQ pg. 3

What if you have other insurance and need confidential services?	You may be eligible for confidential family planning services even if you have insurance, if you meet one of these exceptions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• You are seeking confidential family planning services and are 18 years old or younger; or• You are a victim of domestic violence and covered under your abuser's health insurance. Call the HCA at 1-800-562-3022 to enroll in confidential services
What if you have other insurance?	You are not eligible for FPO services if you have other insurance that covers family planning services unless you are seeking confidential family planning services.
