- Yes No If Yes, explain:

Purpose: As authorized in Second Substitute Bill 5555 (68th Legislature, Regular Session), the agency is revising Chapter 182-115 as follows:

- Peer counselors may provide Medicaid-reimbursable peer services only through December 31, 2026
- The rules include requirements for peer counselor supervision, credentialing, and service locations.
- The rules provide that certified peer specialists will supersede certified peer counselors on January 1, 2027.
- The rules repeal WAC 182-115-0200, which provides for peer counselor application, training, examination, and approval.

In Chapter 182-116, the agency is making some housekeeping changes. The rules also clarify that a person who passes the agency's examination receives a letter stating that they have met the training requirements to apply for a certified peer specialist or certified peer specialist trainee credential.
